Conrail's Buffalo Line - Part One

This program was shot over a five month period between January and May of 1996. During our visit between the historic Rockville Bridge and CP-Kase in Sunbury, PA., Conrail was running four scheduled trains a day. We capture these trains on the southern part of the Buffalo Line plus empty and loaded coal trains, CP detour trains, and a CP high and wide. We also see the North Shore Railroad at Sunbury going onto the Shamokin Valley Line. Other locations of interest are: CP-Wye, Hecks, CP-Stoney, Dauphin, Millersburg, former "LV" Jct., CP-South Boyles, and Fisher's Ferry.

Full color, stereo sound and narration.
